Just no words to describe how heart broken I am, for myself and mostly for the family. I truly felt like Mary was my second mother. Her strength was admirable, her heart was true, her advice and just being able to listen will and already is greatly missed. Only solace I feel is she now is surrounded by those whom preceded her but I selfishly feel she should not have left us so soon. We had so many stories and memories together to reminisce about, laughing and crying at the same time. I will hold those precious moments close to my heart. My truest deepest condolences to the LoBianco family, I will keep you all in my prayers, with Love
