A remarkable man across the board: professionally, among friends and most importantly, his family. Our short time with Mr. Pace was filled with great stories of his past, punctuated by laughter and incredible disclosure. He was a man who made an impression on you. An extremely positive one. We know that void can never be filled. God bless you all Pace family.

Sincere condolences to Richard's family and prayers that he is now pain free in the arms of God. Though I never met him personally, his caring and compassionate children speak volumes about his life. May Richard rest in Eternal Peace. May his family be comforted by the memories he provided over his lifetime.
