I became close friends with Tinker and Bill Megletti when they owned the station in Wharton. I pumped gas for them, kept the peace during the gas shortages. Funny,funny man. I really liked him a lot. May his pain finally be over Mickey Doboney

I had the chance to get to know Jack in the last 1 1/2- 2 years ... I may not have known him before his disease but I have fallen in love with this sweet sweet man! His smile lights up the room and laugh is soooo contagious! I can't wait to see him again! Love you sweet man! Till we meet for the first time again ??
