You were a wonderful husband whom I loved with all my heart. I loved all of the times we would go to feed the ducks and get coffee afterwards. Such wonderful memories. I miss you so much. You are out of pain and reunited with your loved ones. Feeling incomplete without my other half, but all I have to do is look Heavenward towards the constellations in the sky and know you are forever in my heart. Hope to see you in Paradise one day.

My brother, Michael, was the one with the best sense of humor. He was a wonderful son, brother, husband, father and grandfather. He was a good friend. He had many jobs during his life but I believe he excelled in the restaurant management area. He appreciated being raised in the Catholic Church and was comforted by the priest after learning he was terminal. His last six days at Hope Hospice were peaceful and their care was wonderful. His family was so grateful to have been with him before he passed away. RIP Michael until we see you again. You are so loved and so missed. Your big sis, Elaine Schumacher Casperson.

To Mike, fly high and soar like and eagle among the Angels in which you surely are! I worked on the same team with you for 10 years and your friendship was valued by myself and many other co workers. I am sorry of your loss to all of us and the world has lost another great person. Heaven though has received another Angel. I know your love will always be around the loved ones that are left behind. Please know we will miss you greatly! You have always been a great friend.

I am so grateful to have reconnected with Mike Sr. this past Easter after 25 years. He was a great man who happily put up with my shenanigans as a kid, and even offered me a job at his Shell station while I was awaiting a 3 month delayed entry for boot camp. His son, Mike Jr. and I both had a Camaro, and he generously always let us fill up at his station (which helped immensely when you're a teenager driving a Camaro). My deepest condolences to Matt & Michelle on the loss of your father. He had a huge heart, and I will truly miss him. Much love to you all.
