My husband Jerry Kraft and I met George and Ann when we first moved to Cape Coral. They were the first friends that we met who introduced us to "kitchen table gospel" at St.Andrews and that was the beginning of a lifelong friendship. George was always a great conversationalist and I always enjoyed talking with him. Hey George, say hi to my husband Jerry if you happen to bump into him up there!

George became my big brother when he married Ann and I was 12 years old. He was so handsome , elegant and kind and I fell in love with him immediately. Over the years as he became my mentor and guided me and countless others on our path through life, I appreciated his advice which was always thoughtful and given with a twinkle in his eye. You will be sorely missed George. Rest in peace!
