My husband and I knew Miss Mary for only 4 short months, but what a gal she was! We lived 2 streets from her and she soon became our seamstress. (What a talented seamstress Miss Mary was too!) I then became her health insurance agent. I enjoyed hugging her when I visited. I wanted to give her a birthday hug, but was only able to send her a card. I wish I had made the time to stop by for that last hug. I was deeply saddened to learn of her passing, but I know she was ready to once again see her family in Heaven. Miss Mary, the short time I knew you was a great pleasure! May you once again be happy!
