I knew Helen since I was a child. We used to call each other (we both lived down town) start walking & meet in the middle. Usually by the jail! Then we would have our great adventures—going to the movies, her father's barbershop and many other fun things! Later my sister worked at her hair salon & (many years later) her mom & my dad were in the same nursing home. It seems as if life has come full circle and I can't believe Helen is gone. I will remember her always.

She was one of the most amazing women I had the honor of knowing. Her confidence & beauty were admirable (and she made the best ham!). She will be greatly missed by the entire family!
