Please accept my heartfelt condolences on the loss of your dear father and friend. When you see somebody live such a full and long life, it may make you wonder why man has to die at all. But be assured God has promised us in the Bible at Revelation 21:4, that he will do away very soon with death and sickness from the Earth forever, and then he will resurrect Terrance to perfect life here on Earth, surrounded by family and friends, which has always been God's purpose for mankind and for the Earth.
