As a youth at Parkway Church Mr Freeman was somebody I looked up to. He hired me to cut their grass for a fund raiser for our youth choir. I always thought the Freemans were pretty cool. I am glad to read Mr Freeman had a full life and succeeded at what he wanted to do. It's no surprise to me he gave of himself. My thoughts are with his family. Job well done Mr Freeman. Sleep well, you earned it.....Tommy Keene

Lori and Family, May you feel God's loving comfort in these days, months and years to come. Thank you so much for sharing your Dad's history with us through this memorial sight. He sounds like he lived life well and left many friends and a family who adored him. We celebrate his "graduation" into the presence of The King. God bless.
