Arthur and Kathy, As you face this, the most difficult passage of time in your Life, I hope you can keep close in your heart the remembrance of those precious days when Arthur was young and full of joy and the child you treasured so very much, remember his laughter as he played with his sweet puppies. Try to keep those memories fresh in your hearts. They are the only ones that really matter. And know in your hearts that Arthur knows and is thankful for the wonderful parents he had. My love is with you both today and always, Auntie Ann.

So very sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. No matter how much we love someone, we cannot control and or prevent "time and unforeseen occurrence" from befalling those we love. Within your grieving and recovery, may Gods' mercy surround you. John 5:28,29 tells of a resurrection; 'A better place.'
