It has taken me this long to say even today, still with tears and sadness. Ashley was my work daughter, you were a very special person with such a good heart. I will dearly miss the smile and cheer I saw in you everyday. You will not be forgotten and will always be in my and I'm sure everyone else's heart.

Like I always told you, you are very special and I appreciate you. Wise beyond your years! I'll miss coming to you for advice. Irreplaceable and unforgettable. A tragedy that will forever change me. It leaves me feeling numb and confused by its surrealness. I lost a great friend and trustworthy confidant. Prayers for your family for their loss is tremendous. I'll never forget you Ashley. You played a big part in my growth as a woman and professional. Till we meet again
