When I met first Betty, she had come to a women's group at Christ Lutheran Church in Cape Coral and was very active with her church work. I was on staff with the church. She would take really nice trips to Europe and I asked her if she would get a big suitcase and pack me in it so I could go to. From then on, we talked and laughed about a variety of different subjects through the years. Rest in perfect peace, my 'ole friend. I remember your laughter and smile. You are loved.
