

INGER S. ALDAGHSTANI

NOV 3, 1937 - OCT 23, 2017

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 5

INGER S. ALDAGHSTANI

NOV 3, 1937 - OCT 23, 2017

Inger S. Aldaghstani, 79 years old passed away on Monday evening October 23, 2017. Inger passed at her daughter's home in Cape Coral, Florida. A valiant fight with Breast Cancer, a strong will to live, along with the love and prayers of family and friends, Inger decided it was time and passed away very peacefully, comforted by her loving daughter by her bedside. Inger was born on November 3, 1937 in Moelv, Norway. One of three beautiful sisters, along with a brother whom all reside in Norway today. Inger was very fond and proud of her extended family in Norway, all of their love, and the heritage born from her wonderful Mother and Father was always present within Inger. Inger's genuine and graceful ease of conversation with people, even strangers, was immediately felt. Inger possessed a contagious smile and a truly entertaining sense of humor. Throughout her life she maintained a sweet and simple demeanor that won the trust and admiration of people who came to know her. Inger's signature gift, shown through her constant smiling, laughter, and joking around, will never be forgotten. As a child growing up in Norway, Inger loved to cross country ski. By the age of 7, she had witnessed and endured the invading soldiers of Nazi Germany in her hometown. As a young woman, Inger made the decision she wanted to come to America. By 1960, Inger was in Washington DC, as a "Nanny" arrangement to assist a family and look after their young ones. Not long after, Inger's charm and beauty won over a young man who had also recently immigrated to America, his name Muyaad and they were soon married. By 1962, Inger had her first child, her daughter Faye. In 1964 Inger had her second child, her son Basil. Living in Maryland in 1974, Inger made the courageous decision to move forward in her life with her children and moved to Virginia. As a single mother, Inger was determined to provide a better life for her children. Alone, she did just that working hard for many years. As her children became young adults, Inger was able to pursue new interests and enjoy life. An avid exerciser Inger loved to stay in shape, alongside her strong passion for cooking. With great excitement, Inger moved to Fort Myers, Florida in 2004. This allowed Inger to be involved with her granddaughter Jessamin, Faye's daughter. This brought incredible joy to Inger's life, having a close role with her granddaughter growing up. Inger truly embraced her independent lifestyle in Fort Myers. She cherished her close friendships with people living in and nearby her community. Inger always enjoyed being around babies, so late in life she felt the urge to once again be a Nanny for a few fortunate families with newborns. She smiled and she shared her graceful touch with everyone. To our loving mother up above; Tell her how we miss her, And give her all our love. And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Inger is survived by her Daughter Faye Larkin and her son Basil Aldaghstani. She is also survived by her sisters, Jonne and Berit and her brother, Ole Johan. Inger is also survived by her granddaughter, Jessamin Larkin. (Visitation begins at 1PM, service begins at 2PM) .A Memorial Service for Inger will be celebrated by Pastor Bob Lockwood at 2:00 PM on Saturday, November 18, 2017 inside the Chapel at Fort Myers Memorial Gardens Funeral Home, 1589 Colonial Boulevard, Fort Myers, FL 33907, (239) 936-0555. (Visitation begins at 1PM, service begins at 2PM.) To share a story or photo, leave a tribute or to offer condolences to the family at this difficult time please visit Inger's memorial webpage at www.fortmyersmemorial.com and sign her guestbook.

Obituary

INGER S. ALDAGHSTANI

NOV 3, 1937 - OCT 23, 2017

Tribute Wall

INGER S. ALDAGHSTANI

NOV 3, 1937 - OCT 23, 2017

CW

Cindy Vande Woude posted:

I will remember Inger's kind eyes and warm heart. Mostly, how much she loved her family. Your fond memories of such a wonderful person will remain in your heart forever.~Native American Poem~ I give you this one thought to keep. I am with you still. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glints on the snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift, uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not think of me as gone. I am with you still in each new dawn.Sending love, peace and strength. All the best, Cindy Vande Woude

November 17 at 12:32 PM

JS

Jonne Sjorengen posted:

I'm so sorry that I have lost my beloved sister who also was my good friend. She was a beautiful person – happy, easygoing and always so nice to be around. I and my family will miss her so much. I send my love to Faye and her family and to Basil and his family in this difficult time. We are thinking of you.Love from Jonne

November 16 at 9:28 AM

JJ

Jorn Arne Johansen posted:

Inger and I grew up in warm and safe surroundings at Stensven in Moelv, Norway. There was only one and a half year between our births and we developed a very close relationship, amongst others sleeping in opposite ends of the bed till we were around ten. During the war from -40 to -45 when Norway was occupied, our parents had a very hard time but we were too small to really understand. Jonne and Ole Johan were born a decade later than us, after the war, they were still very small when Inger left for Oslo at the age of sixteen to become a nanny . At twenty-two she moved with her employing family to USA and keeping in touch became more difficult, but she always remembered our children for Christmas. Once the girls got a big doll that could walk and Jørn Arne had a police car, this was very unusual things to have in Moelv then and was highly appreciated. In the later years communication has become much easier and Inger has been on visits many times. Just before she fell ill we made plans together for her to come and stay for a while and visit places from our childhood.A last farewell to our dear sister from Ole Johan and Berit with families.

November 16 at 7:19 AM

Tribute Wall

INGER S. ALDAGHSTANI

NOV 3, 1937 - OCT 23, 2017

SF

Sue And Charles Fink posted:

Ingers beautiful smile will be missed. Sue and I enjoyed her friendship. Sharing her wonderful experiences with us we admired her independent life style. We send our love to the family at this time of loss. Love Sue and Charlie Fink

November 14 at 4:51 AM

JA

Jennifer Andersen posted:

"Those we love don't go away. They walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near. Still loved, still missed and very dear". I am sorry for your loss. Love you!

November 12 at 5:27 AM

AB

A. Bell posted:

I'm so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as the comfort found in God's word the bible. In the face of such tragedy, many wonder why God allows such suffering. In the bible, Romans 5:12 says, "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

November 11 at 2:27 PM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring INGER by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

