Celia M. Lawrence of Fort Myers, Florida, passed away Wednesday, October 5, 2016 in her home after some recent health challenges. She was 63. She was born January 9, 1953 in Stretford, England; the beautiful daughter of the late Geoffrey and Joan Taylor. A native to England and a British citizen, Celia was raised in Manchester, England. She received her educational degree and teaching certification and became a special education teacher for kindergarten and pre-school age children. Ultimately, she devoted her time to her children and family as a full time mom. Celia loved Sanibel and the beach and enjoyed the warm Florida weather. In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her sister, Helen Cronshaw. Celia is survived by her four children, Benjamin, Emma Jane, Alexandra and Anna, and six grandchildren, Gabriella, Madison, Henry, Mackenzie, Piper and Rebecca. She is also survived by her brother, John Taylor. She was a very special person who meant a lot to her children and her family and she will be missed desperately by those she has left behind. Immediate funeral services will be at the convenience of the family. Fort Myers Memorial Gardens Funeral Home is serving the family. Mom, I miss you more and more everyday. I wish I could pick up the phone and hear your voice just one more time and know that everything would be ok. I know your safe and looking over us, but I wish I could see your smile again. I love you so much mom.

I am so saddened to hear that my friend has passed. I will sincerely miss Celia, I have many fond memories of our time together in New Jersey. We spent many days in the summer months having lunch, eating French bread, pate and fruit while our children played. When I think of my friend I think of her genuine smile, that is what I hold in my heart now. Rest in peace Celia until I see that smile again.
