I remember jarrett as a little boy. I was married at the time and my spouse and I were close with Jim and Sarah. They stood up for us at the marriage ceremony. My fond memories of jarrett were that he was so sweet and gentle, and always happy and smiling. He loved his music too. He would call my lttle boy at the name TOAD instead oF Todd. He had a beautiFUL way and making you realize that life should be simple and easy and to embrace the moments that gave you pleasure. He was blessed to be born into the Woodby family and in turn they were too. I am happy that he is reunited with his mom and dad. I am sure they are celebrating. RIP. Fondly, nancy beeson
