I'm thankful for my mom teaching me how to cook, clean and everything else I needed to know when I left home. I've already passed along a lot of those things to my son Jeremy. She lived a great life and was a great wife to my father and can now be together again in heaven. I will miss you and I'm sorry I'm unable to attend due to schedules but I'll be thinking about everyone. One day we will all meet up again when our time comes. With me living in Texas my brother and sister had to carry the load without me and I'm thankful they were there. Laurie Martin Peterson Lubbock, Texas
