What can I say. Even with Sherry's dementia, she was like a girlfriend, I enjoyed taking care of Sherry she enjoyed having her hair and nails done by me and I enjoyed going for walks with her in her early stages of her disease. She was always so sweet. What a special and classy lady. Love you Mary Lou Smith

Will miss my BFF. We had so many good, crazy, fun times during high school and beyond. We traveled to Europe together and laughed and laughed. Sherry was such a happy spirit.. Even tho I live in CA since high school, we have seen each other frequently. She is the reason I moved to CA. She came first, I visited her here and loved it and moved here. She will be in my heart forever RIP my friend.

Sherry was an awesome friend to me. I miss her smile and her crazy wit. At times I think you could call us "partners in crime". We had great fun and never had to work hard at being best of friends.
