Mark was my neighbor from around 1999 and a really good guy. He spoke often about his children Jamie and Jeremy. He was excited about becoming a grandfather. He started getting sick and after a few hospital stays i began to worry about him. His daughter asked me to check on him and when he didn't respond I called for assistance from our local PD. Sadly he had passed away. Over the years we shared some good laughs. He was a funny guy. He died too young. RIP my friend.
