My heartfelt condolences to Ruth's family. I am sure you don't know me but I baby sat for her (Bobby and Tommy when very young) when you all lived on Oak Terrace. I was a young teen and she was a young woman who was very very good and kind to me. She was always happy and it carried over to the people with her. She would have me down to just sit with her and her neighborhood women friends. She taught me how to make the BEST spaghetti sauce and talked to me about her "Southie". I never forgot her and have great memories of her and her energy. My prayers are with you all. Carole (Proulx) Gillis-Hayes Pelham, NH
