I remember when I was just a little girl and great grandma would brush my hair and tell me that im going to go far in life. And how every holiday even though I was sick she would put me right beside her and tell me that ill be better before I know it and to not let it bring me down. She was never great grandma to me though I always called her Mom. I love and miss you so much Mom. Me and my unborn baby love you and itll know how great of a mother you were. I wish the two of you could've met but God had a different plan. We love you so much.
