Elmer Richard Viox, of Estero, FL and formerly of Morrow, OH, passed away peacefully on Friday, October 2, 2015 in Fort Myers, FL with his family by his side. He was 82. Elmer was born September 10, 1933 in Lockland, OH to the late Elmer John and Catherine (Schultz) Viox. He was a loving and devoted father, grandfather, and great grandfather. He began working in the Cincinnati area as a construction foreman, later working with his brother, Bill, building ponds and eventually owning his own excavating business in the Warren County area. He loved being on the water and he and his wife, Alma Jean, spent as much time as they could in Florida, eventually retiring to the Ft. Myers area. In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his wife, Alma Jean and two brothers, Bill Viox and John Viox. Elmer is survived by his eight children, Rick (Janice) Viox, Mike (Debbie) Viox, Jerry (Kila) Viox, Patty Viox, Jackie (Bob) Witt, Lori (David) Ritchie, Jeff (Janice) Viox and Darren (Shelley) Viox; his two brothers, Paul (Norma) Viox and Jerry Viox, 17 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren. Dick was a wonderful friend to many in Mariners Cove. His porch was open to all, especially in the late afternoon when his work was over for the day. He would help anyone who asked, home repairs, renovation, borrowing his truck, hauling furniture, etc. We could count on Dick! We will miss him so much. Judy and Steve Martin
