Debbie and Jimmy, I am so sorry to hear the news of Heather, and even though it's been a long time, this news hit me hard. Not sure if you remember me (Todd Allen) but Heather and I dated for a short time back in the late 80's, I then left for NC to start a new life. However, over the years I have often thought of Heather and her beautiful smile, (which from the picture posted and the few on Facebook, I see she never lost), always wondering how she was doing and how her life was turning out, hoping and praying the best for her. I will always cherish our time together, even though it was short. I am also sorry to hear of your fathers passing last year, I worked for him for just a short time and always respected him and his kindness he showed me. It's never easy losing loved ones as I too lost my dad last year after a long battle with cancer and was very hard on me. But it is comforting to know, that they and Heather are no longer in any pain, at peace, and in a beautiful place now, always remember that. I wish I could be there to give you my support, but please know I am there in spirit, remembering her and praying for you and your family's comfort during this time. Would love to hear from you ... you can find me on Facebook if you care too. Take good care of yourselves and each other!!! Todd
