Irene was such a sweet, kind and loving lady. She took very good care of Gavin for quite some time while he was little. She would play piano and sing to him. He loved staying with her as she made the day all about him. His desire to play piano came from her and we're so glad she had that influence on him. He can play some beautiful music now and we think of her often when he's performing. Thank you Irene, that was your gift to us.
