I told Leon the last time I saw him about this but he didn't remember it.....its etched in my mind forever because it was hilarious to me!! Funny Leon.....I was privileged to go to NC with them one time.....I got him!!...While at a restaurant we checked out the bathrooms. Two doors....one for male....one for female....I was first to enter and saw that it opened into a small "lobby".....knowing it would surprise him....I stood there waiting for him.....he didn't disappoint!! Upon opening the door he saw me and horror reflected in his big brown eyes as he hurriedly excused himself from the "room". I laughingly waited for him as I knew reality would hit and he came back in laughing too. Really, a good man!!

It will be a huge lost for all of you and my thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this sad time. Remember all the great times with him and his crazy wit. He will always be imprinted in your heart and never forget his true love for all of you. So sorry I can't make the funeral, I'm out of town now. I will be thinking of you during this difficult time. Peace and love to all of you.
