John W. Brothers

MAY 27, 1931 - MAY 16, 2015

FINAL CURTAIN FALLS ON AREA ACTOR AND RETIRED CSX RAILROAD EXECUTIVE John W. Brothers of Fort Myers, FL and Sheffield Lake, OH, known to many theatre-goers as an accomplished actor and director died May 16, 2015 at Hope Hospice, Cape Coral, FL. He was 83 years of age. Before retiring to Florida in 1992 from the CSX Railroad, he was director of industrial development in its Baltimore headquarters. John was a long time former resident of Middletown, NJ, prior to his retirement. During the winter, he lived at his home at the Herons Glen Country Club in North Fort Myers, FL, where he was active in local theatre companies, founded the Herons Glen Players of Herons Glen Country Club and was the first editor of THE HERON newspaper. During the summer, he lived on the grounds of the 103rd O.V.I. Civil War Camp in Sheffield Lake, OH (which his great-grandfather helped found). Born into the theatrical family of John and Cassandra Brothers of Cleveland, Ohio, he pursued acting in New York and toured the country with various road shows as a young man. That changed the day his car broke down in front of a railroad office in Albany, NY and went in to call for help. He came out with a job that went on to become a 40-year career with what is now CSX in sales and industrial development positions at Cleveland, Toledo, and Chillicothe, Ohio; as well as New York, Charleston and Baltimore. Mr. Brothers successfully combined his full-time career with CSX with a part-time theatrical avocation. He was the only railroad executive licensed to practice before the Interstate Commerce Commission while being a card-carrying member of the American Federation of Radio and Television Artists. A 32nd degree Mason, he belonged to Arabia Shrine in Fort Myers, the Charleston WV Scottish Rite Consistory, and was a 50-year member of Northern Light Masonic Lodge of Maumee, OH. He attended Fenn College in Cleveland, the University of Baltimore, and Russell Sage College in Albany where he was a member of Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity. Mr. Brothers was a Board member of and active in
