Jacki Martindale posted:

Bob was our neighbor in Jamaica Bay community. He was one of the first people we met after we bought here. He was ready to offer advice and shared his knowledge of the community and lent us his gardening tools until we could get things together of our own. He generously invited us and all our neighbors to share in the festivities of the Edison Parade every year. He was an interesting guy and a good neighbor. Rest in peace Bob. Our prayers and thought are with Marcia and her entire family. Gary and Jacki Martindale
