Our dearest Carol, Although we are so far away, Paul and I are keeping you in our hearts. It seems that only yesterday we were having Christmas Eve dinner together with the children at our feet, all of them antsy to open their gifts at midnight. Where have the years gone? We will always treasure those memories of time spent with you and Frank and the children. We pray our beloved Frank is at peace, and that you will find peace as well. We send our love and prayers to you, Julie, Valerie, Lisa and Paula. Please know we are thinking of you and love you, despite the miles between us. Always your loving family, Dot
