Words can never express how much I love you my dear brother! You are at peace now, and are with mom and dad so I know that you are okay. Thanks for the many wonderful and loving memories over our lifetime together. I will cherish each and every one of them! This is not good bye for us because I know that our paths will cross again. So until then, be at peace and enjoy your time in Heaven. I love you! Patty

What a great friendship we had, 38 plus years worth of memories. Through good times and bad we grew up together, (I was only 17 when we met you) raised our kids together, and even moved to Florida together! You fought a good fight but now it's time to rest. I'm sure you have already teed off on the golden fairways of heaven! I love you my friend. Rest in peace until we meet again....
