Laura, all this is such a huge mistake. How are we to go on and never hear your sweet soft voice again? You were such a little girl when I first met you. Your father George Nelson brought you to our house. It took you, me and the girls a bit to warm up to each other. But once we got started, there was no stopping. You were and are a daughter to me, always have been, always will be. Even after you had your babies and were in Ft Myers, we remained close. How do I never hear your voice say Hey Mom, you busy? again? Laura, your life has never been an easy one and it has ended much too soon but Baby Girl I plan to see you again and go walking with you. Love you Sweet Angel

Laura, when we were little girls and you came to live with us, I was so excited! I had another sister! All I wanted was to love you and you to love me. I got my wish because you quickly became one of my best friends. Where I ended, you began, there was no difference.. I feel I have known you all my life. Remember when Dee and Lisa took us snipe hunting? They thought they'd lose us in the woods. At night. You and I not only made it back home, but we're sitting and waiting on them to get there. The looks on their faces was priceless!! You are my vampire sister! We would pass all the Anne Rice books back and forth, and just about anything else we could read. I love you with all of my heart. I feel like my heart has been ripped out and torn into pieces. I need you here with me. I need to hear you call me Char Char again. We were supposed to spend the rest of our lives together, growing old and continuing to laugh about all the things we did as kids. Poor mom!! The hell we put that woman through. Laura, of us all, you were the most compassionate. The one who never ever judged anyone. You had the biggest heart of us all. You were the best of all of us rolled into one. I miss you. I love you. I will see you again one day. When I do, we will lay in the grass again and watch the clouds and talk and laugh and cry, just as we used to do. This isn't goodbye forever, it's goodbye for now.

Remember that one time that we went and stayed the night on the beach? Me you Cassy and Eric. I was around 8 at the time..and around 6 am the next morning you woke me up and we walked on the beach, just you and me and we just talked about everything as we watched the sunrise and your favorite bird (pelicans) fly around. I remember when we were living in north ft myers and you were always busy with Cassy and Eric & I was always busy with school, so we started 'mommy and daughter day' and we would do something fun, just you & me one day out of each week.. We used to go bowling, visit the shell factory, watch movies, we had so much fun. I could always talk to you and you knew every answer for all of my problems. I feel like I've never said that I love you and how much I appreciate you enough. And I kills me to know that I will never see you or hear your voice in this lifetime. You were my favorite. I loved you more than I've ever loved anyone. You were me. You used to say how I was your little shadow because I would always follow you around. When I was younger (I'm sure you remember) how I used to get in these fights with Cassy and bub because they used to say that you were 'there mom' & I used to get so mad because you were mine first but you'd always come around and say that your heart had 3 pieces one for me, one for cass, and one for bub. I really don't know how I'm going to get through this with out you.. There's still so much to do and say, you left me way to young..you always said that wherever you go no matter what I'll always come with you.. But your gone and I'm still here. This pain will never go away. You will always be the person that I love the most. It's time for you to rest mom. And just know that I'll be up there with you one day & we will finish our adventures together. I love you say hi to mocket for me.
