Although I have not seen Bill for some time, I remember him as being such a true gentleman. He always had a smile for everyone and nothing ever seemed to get him down. I was sad to hear of his passing and want to express my condolences to his family and hope they take comfort in their memories of him and knowing that he is at peace.

My memories of Bill go back many years. He was a kind thoughtful man that will be sadly missed. The weekends we all spent at beach, or the many fine meals we had at his home. He was a true family man. Never an unkind word about anyone. A hard working honorable man that loved his family and friends. Bill was everything a man should be. God took his time making this wonderful, loving, kind man. May he rest in the peace he so dearly earned. To his wife Jean, I'm sorry for your loss. I know he's in heaven with my husband Phil.
