When Bill and I were first married and we went to FL for a visit, Billy picked us up and said "we have to go to the mall, Sara is dancing there". So we did and did she dance. It was a joke for many years...we always watched Sara dance. I will miss your dry dry wit (which I think you inherited from your siblings) and that smile. RIP. I will miss you.

My heart & prayers go out to Sara's family. I only met her recently when we worked together at a company in Ft. Myers. She had a razor sharp wit and a ready laugh. Her devotion to her daughter and her passion for her pets (current & "future") told more about her character than she probably ever meant to reveal. She is missed. Linda Fisher

Sara was fun and oh so funny. She had a quick wit, dry and sarcastic, but very funny. We shared many good times. When the Tampa Bay Bucs were playing in the Super Bowl, she and I were on the phone half the game, whooping it up! I am deeply saddened by her passing.
