Our condolences to the family of Doug. We have only known Doug a short while and on every occasion that we had to talk with Doug, it was pleasant. It is difficult to lose a friend and family member but we know we will meet again someday. Hugs, Lindsay and Thelma Simonsen.

What a wonderful photo of Doug — his smile was what I liked most about seeing him. It was generally followed by a thoughtful, insightful or humorous comment and often a compliment. Doug rarely — if ever — shared negative words or feelings. He was always kind and supportive of everyone. I feel blessed to have known him for these few years, cheated that I will never hear him play his new accordion and deeply saddened that Allen will never have the chance to marry the love of his life. My sympathies to you, Allen and to Doug's family and friends. We will sorely miss this man but often think of him.
