Pow-Pow has been known me since I was born and has always been there for me with his words of wisdom. Even our last conversation was him teaching me an important life lesson, and it's one I'll carry with me forever. He touched so many lives before he left and I'm glad I got to be one of them. He was an amazing husband, father, grandparent, and friend. He may have left this Earth, but he'll live in my heart forever until I see him again one day. I love and miss you more than you know, and can't wait for the day to come where I get to be with you again.

I have been blessed to have had Dave as my next door neighbor and friend for the last fourteen years. I will always remember how Dave would call me over to have a cup of coffee with him and we would talk for hours on end about his past, his times of travel in Spain and his time in Vietnam. I will miss those talks. My heart goes out to Dina his wife and their two children Jesus and Esther and the great loses that they are going through at this time of their life. I know that when my time comes to an end on this earth that I will once again be able to talk to my friend and neighbor Dave.

I remember when Uncle Dave and Dina came to see us at home when I was growing up. He was always telling stories, laughing and was happy. I enjoyed those times. May God comfort you and your family in your time of need. I love you all! Love, Terry Funk and children, Gary and Emily
