I met Susan Seven years ago. We were both going through breast cancer. We would talk as we both passed going through treatments. I got to know her and saw what a beautiful person she was. Some how we both beat it and I got to know her better as I did her hair and helped her with wigs. We both shared the horror of losing our hair. We did spend some time together but I wished we had spent more time. But both of us had busy lives. We did go to eat at Bonefish Grill and I loved it when she was there working. When Susan told me her cancer came back I felt so sick. I prayed for her. We went to eat at Bonefish tonight and I asked about her and her husband. The waiter told me she passed away. I am so sad to hear that. I never met her husband but she told me wonderful things about him and her family. My heart goes out to all of you. Susan was a great person and I will miss the times I got to share with her.

Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. This is one of the most difficult things we must face in this life. May it comfort you to know that others are deeply touched by your loss. But the bible assures us at Psalms 34:18 that God is near to those broken in heart and those crushed in spirit he saves. He also promises that we will be able to see our loved ones again. Jesus own words found at John 5:28,29 tells us there will be a resurrection. What a wonderful hope! He also promises that soon on the earth there will be no more pain, suffering and especially death. Revelation 21:3-5 We anxiously await the day when we will no longer lose those we love. May these bible thoughts bring you comfort at this most difficult time.
