We are heartbroken over this loss to your family. You are a beautiful wonderful family that did not deserve this to happen to. So many other bad people in the world to take. None this ever makes any sense to me. You are in our thoughts and prayers....love the De Luca/DeFilippi family.

Our dearest cousin Teresa, We will always remember your smiling face, beautiful jet black curly hair and your love for family. Even though physical distance separated us, we will always treasure the memories of our families getting together over the years and having big meals and lots of laughs. You are now free from pain and Heaven has truly gained a very special angel... Give big hugs to our dad from us... Fly free and enjoy the view.. We will truly miss you.... Silvana, Carmelo and Lora, Our deepest sympathies to you all. It has been a battle and now Teresa is free... We wish we could be there but you are all in our thoughts, prayers and hearts.. Sending lots of strength your way... We love and miss you all very much... Love always, Luisa, Menica, Franca and Rosie Sault ste. Marie, Ontario Canada

"TERESA" We met Teresa when she was just a little girl. Her smile was bright and her hair full of curl. What a beautiful girl right from the start. The day we met her, she came into our heart. As the years went by and she grew, she always knew the right thing to do. Teresa treated everyone with gentleness and kindness too; she made all conversations seem about you. She enjoyed life every step of the way. She and her family showed complete love everyday. Teresa was really one-of-a-kind. A nicer person, no one could find. She was smart, dedicated and determined too. She kept a happy face even when she was blue. Her soul was pure and her spirit strong. She never complained, even though her battle was long. Teresa loved with her whole heart. It breaks our heart to now be apart. May God Bless this precious soul. The world would be a better place if being like her was a personal goal. We all have the same question and that is WHY? Why do many bad people live and a great one has to die? It's not for us to question God's way, it's true; Without Teresa, our lives will have sadness and our hearts will be blue. May Teresa rest in peace in God's comfort and love. May Franca, Carmen and Lora have strength and courage from above. With all of our hearts and love, Cathy, Denny, Debbie and Denny
