What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. Chip, Tony, Thomas and family, may your memories give you strength. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

I don't know Claudia, but it sounds like she was a loved and caring woman. May her soul rest in the arms of Christ. I would also like to give the family my condolence. It is hard to lose someone u love. All will be good in the end. John Paul II once saidit is better to cry than to be angry,because anger hurts others, while tears flow silently though the soul and cleanses the heart. So it's okay to cry for ur hearts will be cleansed and burning with love. She is in a better place and one day u will all see her again. God bless:)

Claudia was one of a kind. I will always remember her with a big smile in her face and a loud laugh. She showed us how you can make a transformation in your life if you really want to. Thank you Claudia to make me admire you just for the way that you were. R.I.P.Natalia Roy
