James Charles Hundrieser

DEC 3, 1939 - DEC 20, 2013

James C. (fondly known as “Evil”) Hundrieser, 74, passed away December 20, 2013. He was born December 3, 1939 in Chicago, Illinois to the late George and Linda (Buhr) Hundrieser. Jim retired after 35 years as a carpet installer. He has been a member of Carpenters Local Union 1185 for 50 years. He loved boating and was a member of the Diversey Yacht Club. Left to cherish his memory are his wife of 50 years, Charlotte; son, Jim Hundrieser of Plymouth, New Hampshire; daughters, Susan Arcus and her husband Daniel of Skokie, Illinois and Nancy Hundrieser of Arlington Heights, Illinois; sister, Judy Mach of Bark River, Michigan; grandchildren, Nicholas and Benjamin Arcus. There will be a celebration of life service in the spring in Chicago. Memorial contributions may be made in his honor to Hope Parkinson Program, Attention: Michelle Martin, 12771 West Lake Drive #9, Fort Myers, Florida 33908. Memories and condolences may be left online at www.fortmyersmemorial.com.

The Schauwecker family shares fond memories of Jim working along side my father-in-law, Ron Schauwecker at Padian Rug. They both loved fishing and having lots of laughs. We extend our sympathy to Jim's family and friends.

Char, Words cannot express how much Evil will be missed. I always looked forward to dancing with him in the Yacht Club and I loved his teasing. He always lightened our spirits and the two of you were always a delight. You were both always so nice. My love and prayers are with you sweetie.

Char, my daughter-in-law was so sad to hear about Evil. She told me that every time she saw him at our summer party he would come up to her and tell her how pretty she was and he always made her feel good. There will never be another Evil. Judy and Jack
