When I wake up I feel somethings missing. We had love we had laughs we had ups we had downs but through it all we had each other. Just know not a moment of the day goes by I don't think about you. I'm not going to lie its very hard but know you are my heart your part of my soul and I love you. You will in my heart for always.

Danny was one of the lights of the Literski family and even though his light might appear to be gone, just look up in the sky to see him shining there through all the happy times, the good memories, the smiles, the laughs and know that those times are forever. I am consumed with sadness to learn of the tragic loss of DanMy sincere sympathy and prayers for comfort and peace to the family of Daniel Lee (Literalski)There were times I missed Dan so much since we separated and went our separate ways, but knowing he was still here meant I could always reach out if I wanted. Now that heâ??s gone, missing him is different and permanent. I try to find comfort in the years we spent together and the happy memories he gave me but sometimes the sadness is overwhelming. God blessed us the most precious gift as a couple, our daughter Gina, she brought so much joy to each of us, a bond that is never broken. May God comfort Gina, Pat, Pam, Dale, Jim, Dana , Joey relatives & friends as they go through this very difficult time. God Bless, Love in Christ, Jan (Literalski) Hutson
