Zach, I remember when you were my daughter Tayler's first boyfriend in 6th grade, the first boy she kissed! You and your mom picked up Tayler so you could take her on a date to the movies. The Chronicles of Narnia! I remember years later you spent many nights at our house. You showed up at our front door one night, wet, cold and crying. We brought you in, you took a shower, we gave you warm dry clothes to wear, a nice dinner and a warm bed to sleep in. We had a long talk that night and a good time too. I miss those days with you at our house. You and Tayler were good friends. Tayler and I love you and always will. We will never forget you. God has you in his arms now...you are at peace. Miss you forever, Kimberly & Tayler Ann Gallic

Hey baby boy, its Eric, I just want to share that you are always on my mind and always in my heart, you always told me to not burn bridges because it is hard to rebuild them with burnt ashes, I think about that all the time and I just want you to know that I would give anything to say two words to you again, thank you, I love you and miss you. let your soul rest in all of our hearts and may god guide you to a better place and let me follow in the years to come.
