Elizabeth & family, so sorry to hear of your mom's passing away. We had heard from Lydia that she was going to have heart surgery. We had prayed for her and was thinking about her but had not heard anything and wish I had tried to call her phone #. I had talked to her about 4 months ago and saw her last year when she was at Jessie's here in NJ. We go back to our days when Grandmom had the cabin at Pine Grove Camp and have been friends so many years. We visited once in Fla back around 1999. May God comfort you all and may good memories be a comfort to. Your mom had a big heart and would do anything for people. Cooking was one of her main things, which we know that Pastor Betzer new about (we had seen him last year on a cruise out of Boston. Blessings.....Stella & Nick Calvelli, Malaga, NJ

Dear Elizabeth & Family, We had the good fortune of knowing your Mother and visiting with her in Sarasota over the past two years. Lillian was friends with Joan (Roccia) Johnson (cousin) and the DeCicco family (Aunt Lori, Uncle Cuz, Steven & David). She knew Joan and Aunt Lori from childhood as they lived in the same neighborhood in West Philadelphia. She was kind enough to drive our cousin, Joan, and Aunt Lori from Delray Beach, FL. on several occasions to visit with us, especially with Marie (Roccia) & Peter Nepi (parents). During one visit our granddaughter, Megan, was visiting and she was amazed as to how Lillian was able to interact with the younger generation. This past year, our daughter, Lisa, was visiting us in Sarasota and got to meet your Mother. She also remembers her fondly. She had a zest for life, had an infectious laugh, her glass was always half full and she was extremely generous and loving to family and friends. We will also remember her as the "Mango Lady". There wasn't anything Lillian could not do with her fresh mangos. May the support of family and friends bring all of you comfort during this difficult. Also, may the memories you have of Lillian warm your heart and lift your spirit. May she rest in peace. Tom & Barbara Nepi Peter & Marie (Roccia) Nepi
