I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as the comfort found in God's word the bible. Romans 5:12 says, "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

First I want to extend my condolences to Steve's family. I knew Steve as Craig when he lived in Arizona. Craig was a special part of mine and my son Nathan's life. While the miles between us took our lives in different directions. I never stopped loving him all the 17 years I knew him. I have so many fond memories of going to unique out of the way places, especially our first date at Greasewood Flat. Craig, I will always love you and will see you in heaven. Rest in peace, all my love, Melinda
