Dear Leslie, Lester and Lisa & families, I have such fond memories living out our childhood as neighbors. Your dad was awesome and I remember his delicious cucumbers. I remember our parents playing cards and seeing the ribbon go to the home of the winners. Such fun riding horses, swimming in the river, rags in our hair, playing cowboys and Indians, etc. I am so sorry for your loss. Please know you all are in my prayers. Let's keep in touch via facebook. God bless and may His peace be yours at this difficult time. Terri Watkins-Land

Les was truly a gentleman and one of my most respected mentors when I was a young surveyor. He was true as can be and always willing to give good advise. I will always remember his stories, smile and laugh. I was a better person for having known him. Jeff Cooner
