Dear Uncle Ray, My heart goes out to you and share in the loss of Aunt Margaret. Chris and I were so fortunate to visit with you at your home and will never forget how well we were received by you both. Aunt Margaret was always heart-warming to me as a youngster and I will never forget how she welcomed Chris and I into her/your home. May she rest in peace. God bless you and have the strength to live on with her memory. John and Chris

My favorite memories: helping you hang the laundry outside on the line, I still remember that sweet smell...you taking me to my swimming lessons...quietly sitting in the sunroom as the sun went down... taking walks down to the beach...grandpa yelling, "where's Margaret?" When you were standing right there...I love you, Grandma. What an amazing angel you will be! Jennifer

At what age do we begin to remember ? I will attest that my earliest memories were of my parents good friends in Connecticut. Margaret – the warmest hostess – the kindest, softest spoken gentlewoman I would have the pleasure of calling friend. I looked forward to the annual visit to Giants Neck Beach, Margaret's sparkling eyes and constant smile. In later years when Margaret visited my parents the photos of her children and grandchildren where out in a flash. So proud of each one. The love for them, ever present. I value the 60+ years of fond memories. Fortunate to have her in my life , even at a distance. Margaret will always be cherished in my heart. Liz Stutz Branca

Margaret: she was my "Mom" for 44 years and I always felt that she accepted me as her daughter and not just daughter-in-law. We have been though many things together, some ups and some downs, many summer days on the porch waiting for the guys to come home from "fishing", sharing crossword puzzles together and swapping stories of younger days. You were so proud of your children, grandchildren and their children. What a wonderful legacy you left behind. We should all pray that we are as blessed as you were. You will always be remembered in our hearts and I am especially grateful that you gave me your beautiful son. Love forever, until we meet again. Franny
