Though we didn't get to see each other often, I still sensed the "spunkiness" that Summer wrote of. You could tell she had the personality that would touch everyone she met – my Dad always spoke of how amusing and funny she was; "sassy" is a good word for how he described her, too. I'm also glad that she's at peace – she surely lived a long and full life! ??

She was one of the spunkiest women I have ever met. I just loved her sense of humor and how fun she was. And of course, she was always the most best-dressed woman in the room (and with the best hair!). I will miss her, but I am glad she is at peace now. She will be remembered always. Love, Summer

I am really gonna miss Grandma. I really admired her sassiness and how she spoke her mind. She was so funny and full of life. I wish my lil girl had gotten a chance to meet her great Grandma.
