Mike, Mike Jr., Michele and Matt, We feel so sorry for your loss and wish we could be in Fort Myers during this time of relection, remembrance and celebration of Marian's life. She was great gal,but I'm sure I'm not saying anything you don't already know. We've always considered you all members of our extended family. Although we haven't always been in direct touch with you, we've always kept up with the family news through Bonnie. May God bless you and keep you always and always provide you with fond memories of Marian's life. Tom and Linda
