Dear Chris, Please accept my sincerest condolences. Over the past couple of years, I always looked forward to seeing you & Georgie out for a walk. I would even change the direction i was headed in, just so I could say hello. My parents, Dave & Joan always spoke so highly of the Christopher's. I know – you realize your beloved is in a far better place. Everyone in Breton Circle certainly loved her personality & smile. I still expect you to take small walks, Chris. We enjoy your personality & smile just as much. Please pass my condolences on to your family.

Dear Byron and Dave, I just wanted to let you know you are in our thoughts and prayers. I know that God was so happy to get Georgie home that he sent a hurriane to celebrate. I still make Aunt Georgie's Butterballs each Christmas, they can't be beat! God bless you. Carol Susie
