Granny I miss you so much. I wish you were here especially now. I had a beautiful little boy who was born prematurely and has been fighting since birth. He is a strong little guy. I sure could use a miracle these days. I am continually praying and begging for mercy but ultimately God decides as he knows what's best. I love you so much and look forward to the day we can be together again. You were the best. Thank you for all our memories. You taught me so much and I will be forever grateful.
