Dear Ryan Family, I was so saddened to learn of your loss. I had not seen Laura for quite some time, though I saw her more often when Katie and my daughter, Jessica were classmates. I remember her as a fun and special lady and I know she will be greatly missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Fondly, Charlette Hatch

I'll miss Aunt Laura's infectious laugh and the way she made the people around her always feel at ease. Her sincere, unconditional love for her family came out loud and clear whenever she spoke of them. We were all blessed to have known her. Uncle John, you are a good man, Sir. I love you. With love and admiration, Matt, Maria, Brianna & Nina Boeckeler Northborough, MA

It is really hard to know what to say. Laura had been my patient for a long time and I just absolutely loved her. She was such a special person and she had a special place in my heart. I will miss our "long" chats when she would call to check her labs. May God sincerely comfort you and bless you during this time.
