hello, i met denny through my old boss in a softball league with a few other guys from ft.myers beach. my uncle and aunt lived on the beach for many years as well as my cousins. we had a good time playing softball together as a team and denny was our main pitcher. we won a championship soon after and have trophies posted at the local watering holes. he was a good man as i am retired navy and he served in the marines. he always had a good word to say when i saw him and was a very generous person and i am very sad to hear of this latest tragedy. i worked with him a few times and he was a hard worker and i appreciated his friendship and i will miss him alot.

Jan and I lived on the beach for about 10 yrs, until this past September, and we knew Denny and loved him very much. Worked with him for awhile when he was still cooking and I was bartending my way through nursing school. He was always pleasant, always ready to laugh and to make others feel good. A genuine fine human being. I ran into him in Lowe's in early February, and now I'm that much more grateful that I did get a chance to see him again. The world is a better place because he was in it.
