Your mother is always with you... She's the whisper of the leaves as you walk down the street. She's the smell of bleach in your freshly laundered socks. She's the cool hand on your brow when you're not well. She's your first love and your first heart break....and nothing on earth can separate you. Not time, Not space...Not even death.... You carry her inside of you....

Cheryl, my deepest sympathies are with you and your family. However, you can rejoice that your mom is singing with the angels and at the Father's side. Glory! She's walking on street's of gold and has the peace of our Lord Jesus. The Lord will give you and yours what you need to get through this time of earthly sorrow. Draw from His strength, He will fill your cup in abundance of what you need. Take care.

Dear David, Marsha, Cheryl, and Ron. I am so very sorry for your loss. Your Mom was one of the sweetest, most genuine people I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. I not only speak for myself but I speak for all the kids in the neighborhood when I say your Mom made growing up for us special, especially for us kids on Julius. I know I had to drive your Mom crazy, almost every day in the summer I would knock or yell "Marsha" at the door looking for my bestest friend and idol Marsha. She was always so sweet about it. She would say she's laying by the pool, you can go see her. That went on for a couple of years. Your mom, my Mom, and Joan were best friends. They were always on the phone with each other or outside talking (smile). When I was 16 I played a joke and put a "For Sale" sign in the middle of the circle by 9 a.m all 3 of them were on the phone with each other trying to figure out 'why' the circle was for sale and 'who' was gonna buy it, 'what' they were going to build there. That went on for a couple of days (smile). I believe our Mom's are in heaven doing alot of catching up. My heart hurts for all of you. I want each of you to know you are in my thoughts, prayers, and heart.
